

ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF WANGARATTA
PAROCHIAL DISTRICT OF WANGARATTA WEST & THE WARBYS
THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT, MARCH 26TH 2023

On Wednesday this week we remember John Keble, an English priest whose influence is still felt in the Anglican Church today, and particularly in the way we worship as 'Catholic Anglicans'.

Born in 1792, the son of a priest, John Keble showed early brilliance as a scholar, becoming a fellow of Oriel College, Oxford, at the age of nineteen, a few years before his ordination. He won great praise for his collection of poems, The Christian Year, issued in 1827, and was elected Professor of Poetry in Oxford in 1831. A leader of the Tractarian movement, which protested at the threats to the Church from liberal developments in both politics and theology, he nevertheless did not seek preferment and in 1836 became a parish priest near Winchester, a position he held until his death in 1866. He continued to write scholarly books and was praised for his character and spiritual counsel. Yet he is still best remembered for a sermon he preached in Oxford, considered to be the beginning of the Oxford Movement, delivered on July 14 in 1833.

In 1857 he published two pamphlets against the Divorce Act, as well as a treatise On Eucharistical Adoration, defending the doctrine of the Real Presence from its attack in the G. A. Denison case. In 1863 he issued a Life of T. Wilson, Bishop of Sodor and Man (d. 1755). His later poetry included contributions to the Lyra Apostolica (1836), an English rendering of the Psalter (1839) and Lyra Innocentium (1846).

Meanwhile, since 1836, Keble had been Vicar of Hursley, near Winchester. He was never offered (and never wished for) preferment, remaining at Hursley, a devoted parish priest, for the rest of his life. He died at Bournemouth on 29 Mar. 1866. His beauty of character impressed all who came into contact with him, and his advice on spiritual matters, always given with great diffidence, was widely sought after.

In 1870 Keble College, Oxford, was founded in his memory, with E. S. Talbot as the first warden.

Feast day in some parts of the Anglican Communion, 29 March; 14 July in Common Worship (UK).

NEXT SUNDAY, 2nd April
Clocks FALL Backwards
by an Hour.
It is Autumn after all!

Trade Table today - Please browse the trade table today for some wonderful home cooking and fresh vegetables nothing like the flavour of a home grown tomato!

Power Saving Bonus—Advice has been received from Fr David Still, that Anglicare can assist anyone in claiming this bonus, see notice board in Hall or church. This is in addition the bonus offered last year.

Mother's Day raffle.

Suzie DL has co-ordinated this raffle—there will be five baskets of goodies on offer, a first prize and if you have 2-5 winning ticket, pick your own basket. We will be looking for some street sitter at the shops in Appin Street. If you can help, please see Suzie

Tickets are $2 each and available to day, please take a book or two . Raffle will be drawn 2nd May We look forward to your usual enthusiastic support for this (much needed) fund-raiser.

Artisan Market - Saturday 29th April

Please ensure this date is in your diary and you do not miss it! There will be a good variety of stalls, plus our usual cake stall, and of course, morning teas and lunch. Please start thinking about your favourite recipes for cakes, jams and relishes. Any help you can offer will be appreciated.

Photocopy paper - very sincere thank you to all who have generously donated photocopy paper, but, it has once again run very low. If you care to donate a ream or two it will be very much appreciated

Parish Ladies—had a lovely day out on Tuesday in Mulwala at the Pioneer Museum and then the Mulwala Club for lunch. We all agreed it was a really worthwhile experience seeing the Museum, lunch was great and the company even better. Thank you Jean Martens for organising, we look forward to the next occasion.

Year's Mind - We have many on our year's mind list and we are considering removing anyone who no longer have any real connection to our parish families. Please consider reading over this list and comment as appropriate in the column provided.

Some of the long standing members of our parish will no doubt have the most knowledge!

Prayer of the week (pray daily)

We thank you, heavenly Father, that you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
we pray that as by his death he has recalled us to life,
so by his presence abiding in us he may raise us to joys eternal;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.
