Mother's Day raffle. There are five baskets of goodies on offer, a first prize and if you have 2-5 winning ticket, pick your own basket.

We will be looking for some street sitter at the shops in Appin Street. If you can help, please see Suzie.

Tickets are $2 each and available today, please take a book or two.

Raffle will be drawn 2nd May
We look forward to your usual enthusiastic support for this (much needed) fund-raiser.

Cupboard for Sanctuary - as mentioned recently, we are seeking donations to cover the cost of making this cupboard, if we could get 20 parishioners to give $20 each it would cover the cost, but of course, all donations are more than welcome!

Thankyou to those who have made contributions to date.

Today is often called Low Sunday.

What is Low Sunday?

It is The Sunday following the "high" feast of Easter, it is also known as Quasimodo Sunday, Close Sunday, or Low Easterday. "Low" probably refers to the lack of high ritual used on Easter, and not to the low attendance usual on this day. The name Quasimodo Sunday comes from the Introit of the mass which is said on this day. In Latin it begins with the phrase Quasi modo geniti infantes —"As newborn babes...." The famous character Quasimodo in Victor Hugo's novel, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, is said to have been found abandoned on this day.

Artisan Market - Saturday 29th April

Please ensure this date is in your diary and you do not miss it!

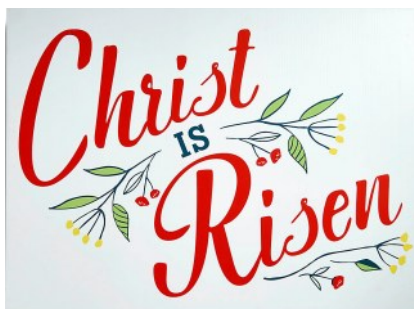

Any help you can offer will be appreciated. We are ;looking for help to set up at 7am and clear up at 1pm. If you have friends or family who may be able to help it will be very much appreciated. Please let us know.

ABM Easter Gift Appeal Envelopes

are available at the back of the Church, please consider offering what you can

PLEASE NOTE: Parish Council has been moved to Sunday April 30th at 11.30am.

The meeting will be at St. Michael's as it is a 9.30am 'whole of parish' worship Sunday.

Friday 21st April: Anselm, archbishop of Canterbury, teacher (d 1109)

Anselm was born in Aosta, northern Italy, in 1033. As a young man, he left home and travelled north, visiting many monasteries and other centres of learning. One such visit was to the abbey of Le Bec, where he met Lanfranc, who advised him to embrace monastic life. Anselm had a powerful and original mind and, during his 34 years at Bec (as monk, prior and finally abbot), he taught many others and wrote theological, philosophical and devotional works. When Lanfranc died Anselm was made Archbishop of Canterbury and had to subordinate his scholarly work to the needs of the diocese and nation. Twice he endured exile for championing the rights of the Church against the authority of the king but, despite his stubbornness, intellectual rigour, and personal austerity, he was admired by the Norman nobility as well as much loved by his monks. He died in 1109.

Prayer of the week (pray daily)

Almighty God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life
of all who put their trust in him:
raise us, we pray, from the death of sin
to the life of righteousness;
that we may ever seek the things which are above,
where he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.
