The Sixth Sunday in Lent Palm Sunday

Dear Parishioners,

We've hit the home straight! Holy Week, possibly the busiest week of our entire Christian Year. No wonder once Easter Day comes and goes we have a couple of days 'rest'.

This week we will have the gathering of Clergy and Lay People to celebrate Chrism Eucharist on Tuesday. This annual celebration in which Clergy renew their vows and the Oils are Blessed is something different for us all to participate in. I encourage you all to try and attend, there is a light luncheon in Purbrick Hall afterwards for those able to stay. The service begins at 11.00am.

Maundy Thursday this year there is one service for both parishes, in the Cathedral at 6.30pm.

The 3 opportunities for Good Friday across the two parishes, one Easter Eve Service—this year with Baptisms—at St Paul's Glenrowan and 6 opportunities for Easter worship across the two parishes. I am grateful for the assistance of The Reverends Cathy Carden and David Still whose presence makes this all possible. How fortunate we are to be able to get to worship in so many places so near to each other with no bombs to disturb our tranquillity. The Prince of Peace whom we acclaim on Palm Sunday with Hosannas certainly needs to be allowed to take up residence in the hearts, minds and lives of all people.

Please make good use of the opportunity to see The Chosen- The Last Supper showing in our local cinema until Wednesday this week. Please support the showing of faith based films in the cinema by going along.

This week the Wangaratta parish obtained new software licenses and with it new email addresses. Please make note of the following:

Rest eternal grant unto them O Lord.
And may light perpetual shine upon them.

Prayer of the week (pray daily)

Almighty and everlasting God, of your tender love towards us you sent your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all should follow the example of his great humility: mercifully grant, that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
